

Some Books / Recommended Authors for Holiday Reading

Children's reading tastes and reading ages vary considerably and, for these reasons, we have recommended books suitable for a wide range of readers. Although we have recommended certain titles, any books written by the listed authors would be suitable.

If you experience any difficulties in obtaining or choosing any titles please do consult the librarians at your local library. They are aware of our recommended reading lists and are eager to help.

David Almond – Skellig

John Boyne – Stay Where You Are and Then; Noah Barleywater Runs Away; The Terrible Thing That Happened to Barnaby Rookett; The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas

Chris Bradford - The Bodyguard' series

Gennifer Choldenko – Al Capone Does My Shirts

Eoin Colfer – Artemis Fowl

Frank Cottrell Boyce – Millions

Roald Dahl – Going Solo; Boy

Joseph Delaney - The Wardstone Chronicles' series

Berlie Doherty – The Sailing Ship Tree

Anne Fine – The Tulip Touch; Madam Doubtfire; Goggle-Eyes

John Flanagan - The Ranger's Apprentice series

Stewart Foster - Check Mates

Morris Gleitzman – Toad Rage; Bumface; Two Weeks with the Queen

Eva Ibbotson – Journey to the River Sea; The Star of Kazan

Elizabeth Laird – A Little Piece of Ground; The Garbage King

Anthony Masters – The Horror of the Heights

Andy Mulligan - Dog

Garth Nix – Sabriel; Lirael

Terry Pratchett – Johnny and the Dead

Sally Prue – Cold Tom

Salman Rushdie – Haroun and the Sea of Stories

Ian Serrallier – The Silver Sword

Lemony Snicket - A Series of Unfortunate Events series

Robert Louis Stevenson – Treasure Island

Jonathan Stroud - Lockwood & Co. series

Robert Swindells – Room 13; Blackout; Timesnatch; Abomination

Jill Paton Walsh – Fireweed

H G Wells – The War of the Worlds; The Invisible Man

More Challenging

Charlotte Brontë – Jane Eyre

Charles Dickens – Great Expectations; Oliver Twist

Anthony Horowitz – Stormbreaker

Philip Pullman – Northern Lights; The Subtle Knife; The Amber Spyglass

Benjamin Zephaniah – Refugee Boy

